

SAMMAMISH~REPORTER.com

Teen Fest this Friday

The second annual Teenfest at City Hall will get underway at 1 p.m. on Friday with a skateboard competition and then transition into a musical event between 5 and 9 p.m.
Photo courtesy of the band

Jun 18 2009, 2:20 PM · UPDATED

Ahead of their groundbreaking gig at Seattle live music institution El Corazon later this month, the band with the best name in rock, Issaquah's own "If I Were A Gladiator" will be one of the big draws at the City of Sammamish Teen Fest this Friday, June 19.

Described as "adventurous, epic, dramatic" I.I.W.A.G will scratch an itch for fans of classic metal and bona fide guitar heroism.

Fronted by first-class metal diva Emily Ruth, the band will open for Seattle hip-hop legends Blue Scholars.

The second annual Teen Fest at City Hall will get underway at 1 p.m. on Friday with a skateboard competition and then transition into a musical event between 5 and 9 p.m.